FOR CONSUMERS. . .

Lane Denton in the heat of Sharpstown furor a few years ago said he respected comments in this column about the low-ebb leadership in Austin at the time.

Denton turned out to be a leader if not the leader of the "Dirty 30" which in effect turned out legislation which turned out powerful pols from governor to House Speaker.

I hope Lane Denton makes the runoff in the eight-man field seeking nomination in the May 1 Democratic Primary. He is not just an advocate of "the people." He is an advocate for consumers, which is everybody.

117-117-117

FOR YOUTH. . .

We repeat our support "For Youth AND Experience" in the May 1 Democratic Primary: Leroy Broadus for sheriff, John B. Henderson, Jr., for county-district attorney, and Don G. Humble for 20th district judge.

117-117-117

ISOLATED PRESS. . .

An LBJ Library symposium on the "Presidency and the Press" brought out a widening difference among journalists in Washington and elsewhere.

It is simply that the Washington or metro Northeast press sees itself less awed and more aware of what to ask presidents.

I liked what Ron Nessen, Ford's press secretary, said at the Austin symposium:

"I don't agree that there are qualities that reporters do not have," Nessen replied to questions from two White House wire reporters.

Nessen said non-Washington reporters meeting with the President "have a grasp of what their readers and viewers are interested in -- perhaps even better than those who have spent 20 years covering the White House. We talk about the isolated presidency: what about the isolated press?"

117-117-117

I get the same inuendo among working press of cities around the country mixing with those of the smaller dailies and non-dailies.

And it's ridiculous. Some of the hardest questions are laid on distinguished speakers at press banquets where the working daily and wire service people only get speech handouts.

Not all small newspapers are "hard news" newspapers like The Herald. But a lot of them are. Size or proximity to size is not quality.

I went to school with Haynes Johnson, who won a Pulizer with The Washington Star in the mid-60s. His father won a Pulitzer with the old New York Herald-Tribune in the early 50s.

Hank Bradsher, formerly bureau chief for Associated Press in Moscow and New Delhi, now teaching in Minnesota, I'm, told, was in the same class. Darrell Seiffert, recent city editor of the Louisville Courier - Journal, was there.

Some others just as good if not better, but not as "big," were there.

It seems the press is caught in the size syndrome until recent years captivating everyone else. Nessen, himself a former reporter for NBC news, knows better.

Oklahoma Team Studies County IFP Program

An Extension team from the Oklahoma University Cooperative Extension Program visited Milam County recently to observe operations of the Intensified Farm Planning Program (IFPP) here.

Two county Extension agents, A.B. Murray and H. E. Berry, and six farm technicians from the Oklahoma Extension Program were in Milam County on part of an educational tour of IFPP operations in several Texas counties.

They were accompanied by Eddie Harrison and Garland McIlveen, IFPP program specialists from the Prairie View Cooperative Extension Program

Local county Extension agents, Billy McCutchen and John Snell, met with the visitors during a luncheon and explained the Milam County IFPP operational procedures. Program Aide Ezra Johnson also outlined program activities to the visitors.

The Oklahoma team anticipates learning enough from their tour of IFPP operations in Texas to start a similar program for small-farm operators in Oklahoma.

Crossover Standoff, Carter. . .

What's new?

Nothing in Pennsylvania. Jimmy Carter carried 35 to 36 percent of the vote, heading Scoop Jackson's 27 to 28 percent, Stu Udall's 19 percent.

President Ford was nominated without opposition.

While then the Democrats are narrowing the choice on the top bill to non-committal Hubert Humphrey and Carter, Texas Saturday will decide whether Ronald Reagan continues to pull the President right of center in later state primaries.

Observers say Reagan is ahead in Texas or at least about even. Other more southern primaries would anticipate similar eventuality in at least three states.

Texas also will choose whether Carter delegates win over Bentsen delegates. Bentsen, Harris and Wallace all three have no prospect of nomination in the National Democratic convention. Which leaves Carter the fourth and last alternative.

We think Carter delegates will carry in Texas. We think Bentsen now has less argument for brokering a Texas delegation with him for early balloting since Carter beat Jackson in Pennsylvania with a combination of electors against him.

And we think the vote in the Republican primary will be another inconclusive heat with the President barely getting a nod. Reagan continues to articulate attacks on foreign policy which keep the President from moving toward the center, despite an economy working more in his favor than any candidate's.

A cross-over vote will make both primaries a study in unpredictability.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editor:

I was reading along not paying much attention to what the news article was saying when I caught myself, went back, up the column, and read the paragraph again.

What it said was that Ron Nesson, the President's press secretary, said that Mr. Ford was shaking up his speech-writing staff but it didn't amount to much since only four of the speech-writers were affected.

I got to thinking? Only four? How many has he got? Then I wondered some more. How many has the Vice President got? The Secretary of State? Senators? Congressmen? Governors? For all I know, Mayors and maybe even grammar school principals?

In other words, in most cases, when a public official makes a speech these days he's only saying what his speech-writers wrote, and the better he can read the better it sounds. I often wondered why President Johnson allowed his writers to use the word "substantive" in his speeches as he could never get the hang of pronouncing it. I can't either.

Anyway, I got to thinking some more. If what a politician says is what somebody else wrote for him, shouldn't the truth-in-advertising law apply? Shouldn't, as he talks on the television, a line move across the bottom of the screen saying This Speech Written by Goodman Ace, or whoever the writer was? If a cornflakes manufactuer is required to say on the box what the contents consist of, shouldn't a politician be required to tell who manufactured his speech? Just as a shampoo company is required to say what its goop contains, so many parts of this, so much percentage of that, shouldn't a politician, if more than one writer composed his speech, be required to reveal 5 percent of the speech was written by Goodman Ace, 15 percent by Robert Orbin, 25 percent by John Casserly, and the rest came from the Encyclopedia Britannica?

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Candidates Make Last Minute Appeals

Major presidential candidates are making last minute appeals for support of Texas voters in the May 1 primary of both Democratic and Republican parties.

President Ford budgeted three days and a night to the Texas GOP primary battle with Ronald Reagan. Counting his two earlier days of campaigning, the president will have spent more time in Texas than any primary state this year.

Reagan also will make his third appearance in the state two days before the primary.

Democrat front-running Jimmy Carter will be back April 30. He made a fast trip to Houston April 20.

U. S. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen is on the scene every day, combining his re-election and favorite son campaigns.

Alabama Gov. George Wallace, faltering as a national contender, was in Texas for a second wide-ranging swing last week to keep his potential delegates in line.

In addition to the presidential preference primary and the Senate fight, the May 1 Democratic ballot offers a hot contest for Railroad Commissioner and three statewide appellate court races. One of the latter is for the State Supreme Court and two for the Court of Criminal Appeals.

$50 Million "Wasted"

Unwise and outdated investment policies have cost the state at least $50 million over the last five years, Comptroller Bob Bullock claimed.

Bullock said a six-months study of state money management practices by his planning and research staff showed Texas has the worst problem with idle funds earning no interest of any state in the nation.

Most idle state money is kept in big city banks, with four banks alone keeping an average of $175 million and earning $10 million last year off the state deposits, the comptroller stated.

Texas, according to Bullock, has an average daily balance of more than $300 million in checking accounts earning no interest. He argued about 75 per cent of that money could be in time accounts drawing interest.

Allowable Set

Texas Railroad Commission for the 50th consecutive month set the state's oil allowable for May at 100 per cent.

While the allowable permits 3,931,778 barrels daily, estimated production actually is only 3,207,000.

Once again, the commission restricted the East Texas field and the Kelly Snyder field in Scurry County to an 86 per cent allowable.

Nominations by crude oil buyers declined by 16,368 barrels a day from the previous month.

The four-week average of crude oil imports, meanwhile, increased 458,000 barrels from the January 2 average and 1.3 million barrels from January 3, 1975.

Courts Speak

The State Supreme Court will hear arguments May 19 in a case to determine whether the best interest of a 10-year-old would be served by terminating his mother's parental rights. The mother saw the child only three times in several years.

Reversing itself, the high court decided it will not review litigation over an insurance company's refusal to pay a San Antonio family for repairing a buckled foundation.

Supreme Court justices affirmed a $60,000 damage award to a man injured in a truck wreck near Dimmit.

The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals ordered a new trial for a San Antonio man convicted of delivering marijuana. The court held that display to a jury of a police photograph of the defendant violated his rights to a fair trial.

AG Opinions

Municipally-owned public utilities must obtain certificates under the Public Utility Regulatory Act for new retail service only when the area to be served is being served by another utility, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

—There is no provision for an appeal by residents of a city from charges established by its municipally-owned utility.

—Public utilities subject to state jurisdiction are subject to assessment.

—The state comptroller can refund taxes collected under a law later held to be unconstitutional.

Appointments

Crawford Godfrey of Jacksonville was appointed to the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, succeeding Vernon Butler of Carthage.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe named Mrs. Patsie Anderson of Uvalde to the State Board of Vocational Nurse Examiners, replacing Mrs. Kenneth Otto of Needville.

Briscoe appointed nine members of the Texas Advisory Council of the Legal Services Corporation. Associate Justice Max N. Osborn of the El Paso Court of Civil Appeals was designated chairman.

"We have a greenhouse!" "Do you have a nice kitchen?" "A huge kitchen with all new appliances!" "Do you have some aspirin?" "Aspirin?" "Yeah, you're making me sick." "You should complain. You're not exactly living in a dump." "How does Fred like his new job?" "Suzie, he's a new man." "He likes it?" "He loves it. Absolutely loves it." "That's good." "How is Jack?" "Fine. He's going through a do-it-yourself phase right now." "Oh, good." "Everytime I ask him to do something, he yells 'Do it yourself!'" "Oh, not good." "When are you coming to visit us?" "When are you going to invite us?" "You know you have a standing invitation." "Yeah, but we'd rather sit." "I'm serious. When are you coming?" "Name a date." "How about in a few weeks... say the week of the 29th?" "Wait a minute, let me get my calendar... the 29th?" "That's a Saturday." "Yeah. Sounds good." "Okay, it's a deal. We'll be expecting you." "What do you want us to bring?" "Just your sense of humor." "No." "No?" "Just joking." "Funny." "You missed a great party at the Smiths' last night." "They had a party? They never have parties." "They've been waiting for you to move away." "What happened?" "Well, for starters, Jackie's dog ate the main course before any of the guests arrived." "You're kidding." "No. Then the air conditioning went on the blink." "No wonder they never had any parties. What did everyone do?" "We starved and perspired a lot." "Sounds awful." "See, that's not so bad." "That's terrible." "I know." "What's your excuse?" "A perfectly understandable insecurity resulting from having to adapt to new surroundings." "New surroundings. The only new surroundings you're gonna have to adapt to is the lard surrounding your midsection." "Hey, look. Go easy kid. I don't have you to nag me any more." "Well, it hasn't been easy for me either." "You wouldn't believe the food prices here." "Oh?" "Low." "Low?" "Low." "No wonder you're eating so much." "I'm not kidding..." "Neither am I." "...I'm saving about 15 dollars a week over what I used to pay." "You're kidding!" "I'm not kidding." "Sounds like you got a raise, too." "Right. 15 dollars to blow on anything I like... toilet paper, floor wax and soap." "Don't forget laundry detergent." "Right." "Hey, you took something of mine when you left." "Your yellow sweater?" "Did you take my sweater?" "Sorry, I wasn't going to tell you." "That's okay. You keep my sweater and I'll keep your skirt." "Skirt?" "You know, the one with all the animals on it?" "Oh, yeah. I'd forgotten about that." "Is it a deal?" "We'll trade when you come to visit." "Sour puss. I'm sorry I even brought the subject up." "What were you going to say?" "I was going to say that you took my Suzie Fu Yung recipe." "Did I?" "Yes." "I'll give you that too when you come." "Good." "See? Just think of all the nice things awaiting you when you come." "I can't wait. Hey, I have something for you." "What?" "A riddle." "Shoot." "What has four holder-uppers, four puller-downers, a pair of lookers, and a swishy-wishy?" "I don't know, what?" "I'll tell you when we come to visit." "Oh, no you don't!" "Bye." "Come on, tell me!" "Bye." "Suzie!"

O'Rourke Raps Burden Of Natural Gas Taxes

The natural gas tax burden must be removed from the Texas consumer and placed on out-of-state customers where it belongs, Texas Railroad Commission candidate Terence O'Rourke said today.

"Natural gas consumers in Milam County must pay for Texas production taxes at rates of up to four times as high as tax rates that apply to out-of-state customers of gas produced in Texas," O'Rourke stated.

O'Rourke, a Houston attorney and chairman of the Public Utilities Committee of the State Bar Consumer Section, noted that natural gas production in Milam County last year reached 889 thousand cubic feet (Mcf)

"Natural gas produced in this county helps heat the homes and factories of the East coast states, but because of the 'Yankee tax loophole' in Texas law, customers in these East coast non-producing states pay less taxes on this gas than we in Texas do," O'Rourke said.

"Because of federal price controls, natural gas going out of state costs 52 cents per thousand cubic feet and the tax for out-of-state customers is based on that amount; but in Texas we pay up to $2 per Mcf and our tax is figured on $2 rather than 52 cents.

"It is time for people in these East coast states--states which would rather deplete our resources than develop their own--to pay as much tax as we do and it is time for the legislature to close this loophole in our state law," he added.

O'Rourke commented that in fiscal 1975, $194,957,458 in taxes was paid on gas in Texas, while out-of-state customers paid only $65,309,263.

"I ask that the legislature change the law and tax out-of-state gas customers on the same basis of gas consumed in Texas," O'Rourke said.

"If this were done, the state production tax paid for by Texas customers could be reduced without losing a cent of tax revenue and the savings could be passed on to the Texas consumer," he added.

Ranger Hall Of Fame Now Open

WACO (Spl.)--Visitors to Waco's annual Brazos River Festival and Pilgrimage will be able to see a pictorial summary of the story of the Texas Rangers in a special exhibit at the Texas Ranger hall of Fame, Dayton Kelley director, has announced.

The exhibit entitled "The Texas Rangers: Their First 150 Years," was produced by the Institute of Texan Culture at San Antonio and will be in the art gallery at the Hall of Fame from Friday, April 23 through Friday, May 21.

Although the Texas Ranger Hall of Fame is not included in the festival tour, the free shuttle bus will be stopping in Fort Fisher Park and visitors may tour the new facility where Ranger history is depicted through exhibits, graphic displays, and a sound and film presentation.

Admission to the Hall of Fame is $2 for adults and $1 for children ages 6 to 12.

The Ranger service long has been internationally famous, but it has not always been called the Texas Rangers. Visitors to the Hall of Fame will see that in early days the Rangers were called "mounted gunmen," "volunteers, "militia," and "Ranging companies," among other labels, including some meant to discredit the force.

Yet throughout their history the best of the Rangers have been a special breed of men, sometimes feared and often loved by their fellow Texans. Their renown is as old as the force.

TAC Begins Study Of Requests

The Texas Aeronautics Commission (TAC) will begin studying requests from Texas cities and counties seeking state funds through the Texas Airport Aid Program for fiscal year 1977. The legislature has appropriated $1 million for the new program and the TAC has begun formulation of the 1977 program, prior to September 1, 1976 starting date, in order to expedite planning and funding.

Charles Murphy, TAC Executive Director said priority will be given to those communities prepared to proceed with their projects on a state and local basis since the federal Airport Development Aid Program (ADAP) has been delayed since last June. Murphy said every effort will be made to expedite construction on approved projects to assure their completion within the same fiscal year.

Requests for aid are incited from any community, and communities with FY 1976 requests for federal/state/local funding already on file with the TAC may revise their requests in light of the ADAP delay, or confirm by letter that their applications are still valid under the original terms.

The legislature requires that the TAC limit is grants to a maximum of $50,000 and to communities of less than 75,000 population. All state grants are made on a 50-50 state/local matching basis. If the airport project is to be financed on a federal/state/local basis, the TAC will participate with 50 percent of the local share. Since state funds are limited, communities are encouraged to make early application. The necessary forms will be furnished upon request and the TAC staff will answer any questions regarding the program.

Corps To Collect Camp Fees

The Fort Worth district, U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, will start its 1976 Camping Fee Collection Program on Friday, May 28 and will continue through Sept. 6, district engineer Colonel Joe Sheard, said today. Collection of fees is required under Public Law 93-303 enacted in June 1974.

Where economically feasible, fee collection is required under the law at all Federal campgrounds providing tent or tailer spaces, drinking water, sanitary facilities, access roads, reasonable visitor protection, and other facilities.

The fees range from $1 to $3 per day for camping at a designated campsite and group use facilities range from $5 to $20 per day. Under the law, the Corps of Engineers is requied to provide at least one free camping area at each Corps lake.

Entrance fees are not charged at any Corps park nor are fees charged for access to the water or use of the boat launching ramps.

Fees of fifty cents per day will be collected for use of electrical outlets provided by the Corps in fee areas.

Holders of the "Golden Age" passport issued to Senior Citizens will receive a 50 percent reduction on campground and electric outlet fees at all Corps operated fee recreation areas.

According to an old Lapp proverb, "Love comes after the wedding."

VA Burial Allowance Available

The Veterans Administration today urged former servicemen and women to acquaint members of their families with the VA burial allowances available to veterans.

For example, VA will provide a payment of up to $250 toward the burial expenses of eligible veterans. An additional $150 is payable as a plot or interment allowance when burial is not in a National Cemetery or other cemetery under United States Government jurisdiction.

Burial or plot allowances are paid to funeral directors and cemetery owners if burial costs are unpaid, otherwise the proper claimant is the person who bore the expense of funeral and burial, Jack Coker, Veterans Administration Regional Director, noted.

In case the veteran's death is service - connected, payment of an amount not to exceed $800 will be made. This payment is made instead of the usual burial and interment allowances.

Burial is available for all eligible veterans at all National Cemeteries except Arlington.

A Weekly Report Of Agri-Business News

Compiled From Sources Of The
TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Some Ups and Downs . . . Super Bargain . . . Citrus Season Ending.

Texas cotton acreage will show an upturn this year for the first time since 1972; sorghum acres this year will be down 1,000,000 from last year.

These are among highlights of the 1976 planting season for the state as reported in the April 1 planting intentions report from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

Cotton acres will be up 7 per cent at an estimated acreage of 4,650,000. This compares with 4,350,000 acres planted last year.

Sorghum acres will be down 12 per cent to total 7,000,000; last year a total of 8,000,000 acres were planted to sorghum.

Corn production in the state is expected to be up 13 per cent from a year ago. Soybean acres will be down 11 per cent.

Rice seedings are estimated at 515,000 acres, down 6 per cent from a year ago. Peanut planting intentions are expected to be only 1 per cent more than last year.

Acres seeded to wheat are down 3 per cent from a year ago; oat acres are down 7 per cent, and flax acres are unchanged.

Acres harvested for hay this year are expected to be up 4 per cent from a year ago.

Nationwide, corn plantings are expected to be up 6 per cent from a year ago; sorghum acres are expected to be down 2 per cent; food grain acreage (wheat, rice and rye) is expected to increase 3 per cent; cotton acreage is expected to total 11,300,000 acres; this is up 16 per cent from a year ago but 18 per cent under 1974.

BEEF CONTINUES to be a super bargain at your supermarket or anywhere else you buy it. Beef is plentiful right now, but a look at the cattle on feed report indicates that supplies will become tighter this summer.

The Texas cattle on feed report as of April 1 shows a 49 per cent increase from a year ago, but it is 7 per cent below the number on feed a month ago.

This same trend shows up in the 7-state feeding report. Cattle on feed as of April 1 are up 34 per cent from a year ago, but are 7 per cent less than a month ago.

WHILE THE SEASON is just beginning for most crops in the state, the citrus crop is ending its season in the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

Based on April 1 prospects, the 1975-76 Texas citrus crop is forecast at 17,100,000 boxes. This is 44 per cent above the 11,800,000 boxes last year.

Grapefruit production is expected to total 11,000,000 boxes. This is 30 per cent above last year.

Valencia oranges are forecast at 2,300,000 boxes, up 43 per cent from a year ago.

Citrus tree condition in the Valley is described as good to excellent.

Devastating Drought Cuts '76 Wheat Crop

AUSTIN--A special mid-season report on estimated 1976 Texas wheat production made official what most observers had feared -- total production is expected to decrease 50 percent from the record 1975 crop of 131.1 million bushels to only 66.3 million bushels.

Most of the decrease in production can be blamed on dry weather which has plagued the state since last fall and destroyed a large portion of the dryland crop on the High Plains, according to Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

"Spring rains helped some, but overall, the crop continues to deteriorate," White said. "Some of the counties hardest hit by the drought were the state's top wheat producing counties."

The continuously blowing high winds common to the High Plains lifted topsoil into the air, literally sandblasting the young wheat plants to pieces, White explained.

The special wheat report also included estimated production for Colorado, Kansas, New Mexico and Oklahoma. The five-state area (including Texas) is expected to produce 521.7 million bushels, compared with a 569.7 million-bushel estimate in December.

Fertilizer Vital For Forages

Fertilizer must be used efficiently if forage production is to be a profitable business.

Dr. Charles Welch, soil chemist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says there are two essential requirements for forage fertilization to be profitable:

--Each nutrient in the fertilizer must increase production more than the nutrient's cost.

--The increased yield must be efficiently converted to a marketable product.

A costly error, Welch contends, is to include in a fertilizer a nutrient that does not boost yield. In many cases--phosphorus in particular--benefits are recovered in later years. The short-term effect, however, is to efray part of the cost from the value of increased yield produced by another nutrient, usually nitrogen.

"To say that fertilization is profitable is not good enough," emphasizes the Texas A&M University System specialist. "We must be able to identify the profit from nitrogen, profit from phosphorus, profit from liming, and so forth."

"Efficiency" in use of plant nutrients usually refers to the percentage of the nutrient applied that is recovered in the harvested crop. It implies that the nutrient is applied only to a deficient soil, points out Welch.

"Therefore, efficient use of nutrients also means harvesting forages for maximum quality and applying nutrients at a rate below that needed for maximum yield. Recovery as a measure of efficiency generally decreased as the rate increases, says Welch.

Gulf Coast Ear Tick Spreading

Long thought to be confined to an approximately 150-mile wide zone along the Gulf Coast, evidence is building that its movement to Oklahoma and some drier counties in Texas, Amblyomma maculatum, the Gulf Coast Ear Tick, has become adapted to areas far beyond its previous habitat.

This ear tick is the primary cause of screwworm infestations in the Gulf Coast region of Texas. The Gulf Coast tick feeds in and around the ears of cattle creating many bloody wounds which is an ideal environment for the meat-eating screwworm larvae.

The ear tick screwworm association so neatly coincides that many scientists are now referring to the situation as the "screwworm-ear tick complex." Fortunately, the Gulf Coast ear tick has not been a problem in Williamson and Milam counties.

Ground-feeding birds are the major contributors to the spread of the Gulf Coast tick, according to research developed by Dr. J. A. Hair, Oklahoma State University entomologist.

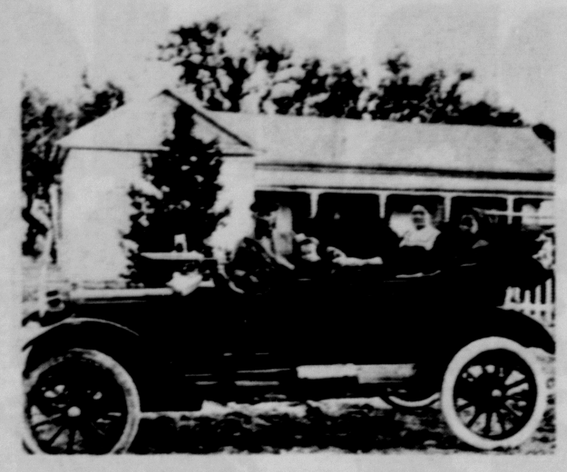
Hair said his studies showed that three of the five leading hosts to immature ticks in Oklahoma were birds. Bobwhite quail, meadowlarks, and sparrows are all excellent hosts. The meadowlark is an especially attractive host because of its wide ranging feeding habits.

Hair observed that some birds collected on tick surveys were covered with as many as 80 immature Gulf Coast ticks. This tick was originally brought to Oklahoma on the ears of imported cattle, but the birds are largely responsible for maintaining the local tick populations.

Dr. Hair is not trying to imply that the ticks were brought in by birds.

PAYING THE PIPER

If you can take the hard rock music most youngsters inflict on their parents, then the shrill, piercing sounds of the bagpipe might be your bag. Most musical experts agree that very great technical skill is necessary for playing the pipes.



FAMILY LAND HERITAGE PROGRAM--Pictured above are the ancestors of a 1975 Family Land Heritage Program honoree. The Program honors farm and ranch families who have worked the same land continuously for 100 years or more. Registration for the Program, which is sponsored by the Texas Department of Agriculture, begins May 1. Applications are available from county judge's offices, Texas Historical Commission county chairmen, or from the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Manage Farm Pond For Fish Production

Texas boasts an abundance of farm ponds but most are producing fish far below their potential.

That assessment comes from Don Steinbach, fisheries specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Texas has about one-half million acres of small farm ponds. Stocked with channel or blue catfish, these ponds can produce up to a thousand pounds of fish per acre annually if managed properly," points out Steinbach.

"On the other hand, annual fish production may be only 50 to 75 pounds per acre for unmanaged ponds with such fish species as small sunfish."

As far as proper management of the farm pond is concerned, the Texas A&M University System specialist outlines these steps.

"Aquatic weed control is one of the first steps to a productive farm pond. Once weeds are identified, chemical treatment should be applied during the March through May period.

"When it comes to stocking a pond with fish, channel or blue catfish offer the best potential. Demonstrations have been shown that a one-acre pond can produce up to a thousand pounds of this type of fish a year with supplementary feeding.

"For top production, fish must have food, and that comes from a commercial ration or proper use of fertilizer. Apply 100 to 150 pounds per acre in April or May to produce the phytoplankton (microscopic plants) which are vital to the food chain for fish."

Steinback notes that there are three Extension Service publications available at any county extension office that deal with control of aquatic weeds, catfish farming and management of the farm pond. County agents can also provide specific information that might affect farm pond fish production in particular counties.

County Agent's Notes

Topdress Sorghum To Combat Nitrogen Loss

By Billy McCutchen

Recent heavy rains bring to mind the flooding and wet fields in 1976 and the grain sorghum yields that were less than outstanding. Flooding and standing water in terrace channels and low areas resulted in nitrogen loss from leaching and denitrification.

I expect that this has happened again this year in these extremely wet areas, but it is not too late this year to do something about it.

I would encourage grain sorghum farmers to consider making an additional topdress of nitrogen in these wet areas as soon as they can get into the fields. Grain sorghum will respond to nitrogen applications with increased yields up to five weeks after emergence.

If you wait until after this stage of growth to topdress, yield increases are not probable as the seedhead has already formed in the young plants and numbers of grain in the head is already determined.

The necessity of topdressing within five weeks was pointed out again to me last year as several producers flew on ammonium nitrate on older grain sorghum. All reported a color change in the sorghum, but most thought that they received little or no yield reaponse to late applications.

Home Garden Nematodes

William Kelm of Cameron told me last week that he got an unexpected bonus when he used Vapam this year to control root knot nematodes in his home garden.

Kelm had about given up gardening because of a severe nematode problem. He used Vapam last fall at a rate of about a pine per 100 sq. feet to control the nematodes and he got good control of another problem--nutgrass.

Some nutgrass control can be expected, but Kelm said that his control was quite good and this is certainly a bonus.

In addition to nematode control, Vapam is usually quite effective on grass and weed seed in the treated area.

Vapam does not eliminate nematodes, and treatment should be an annual affair even though some have reported good control for up to two years.

'75 Prices, Production Down For Most Texas Meat Animals

AUSTIN--Statistics released recently indicate that production of meat animals in Texas was down by approximately eight percent in 1975 from 1974 while total value was off 16 percent.

Total meat animal production reached only 5.5 billion pounds, while the value for all cattle, calves, hogs and sheep fell to $1,698,700, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White has reported.

Cattle and calves, representing more than 5 billion pounds, showed an eight percent decline in 1975 while hog production at 275,827,000 pounds, declined 21 percent. Sheep production, the only category to show an increase, rose 34 percent to 148,645,000.

Average prices received for all meat animals rose in 1975, but prices for cattle and calves decreased.

The average price for cattle was $30.30 per 100 pounds live weight, compared with $34.00 in 1974; calf prices averaged $24.80, down from $33.70; hog prices were up $10.40 above the 1974 average price to $43.70; sheep prices averaged $15.90 compared with $14.20 in 1974; and lambs averaged $41.20 compared with $33.70 the previous year.

Work surfaces for farmers vary from wood, concrete, and steel to mud and ice. Falls account for about 1/3 of all farm accidents. Work shoes with slip-resistant soles and heels can prevent many falls. Soft materials on shoe soles, materials such as vinyl plastics and white, non-hardened rubber, offer more traction on hard surfaces. A grooved sole tread is effective on wet and greasy surfaces.

When you see what the politicians have done to our economy — maybe it's time we had a successful businessman running the government.

Lloyd Bentsen isn't the kind of senator who thinks Washington always knows what is best for America. Before coming to the United States Senate in 1971, Lloyd Bentsen spent 16 successful years in the business community.
Like so many other businessmen, he saw federal agencies hampering the free enterprise competition they are supposed to encourage. He saw bureaucrats demand forms in triplicate when not even the first copy is really needed. And, like the rest of us, he saw a stop-and-go economic policy strangle economic growth, giving us the most unemployment since the Great Depression, the wildest inflation since World War II, the highest interest rates since the Civil War, and the biggest budget deficit in history.
That's why Lloyd Bentsen has been a leader in the United States Senate on cracking down on excessive paperwork. And he has been a leader in fighting for sensible interest rates that don't strangle growth. And he is working hard to help small businessmen get a break in competition with big businesses.

If you ran your business the way some of these bureaucrats run government agencies, you'd have gone bankrupt long ago. Unfortunately, we all have to pay for Washington's wastefulness.

Denton Raps Oil, Gas Monoplies

State Rep. Lane Denton, candidate for the Texas Railroad Commission, said Friday that "it's a good thing for Texas consumers that all businesses are not as greedy as the oil and gas monopolists."

"If they were able to rip us off like the oil and gas bandits, we'd be paying as high as $5 for a 75 cent hamburger," Denton said as he campaigned in Hunstville, Madisonville, Corsicana, and Waxahachie.

Noting that some utility bills "have risen as much as 300 percent in the last coule of years," Denton said:

"A $5,000 car would cost $40,000.

"A $30 pair of shoes would cost $240.

"A $20,000 economy house would cost $160,000.

"A $125 men's suit would cost $1,000.

"A $3 haircut would cost $24.

"The gall of the gas price gougers in Texas reminds me of a story told by a politician describing the practices of monopolies," Denton said:

"If the oil and gas monopoly owned all the water in Texas, a duck would have to pay 10 bucks for a drink out of a creek."

Local Crop, Cotton, Is Topic At Consumer Fair

By Chris Holcombe
Milam Co. Extension Agent

Consumer fair for all will be held April 29 at the Taylor High School at 2 p.m. and again at 7 p.m. These programs are sponsored by the Family Living Committees in Milam and Williamson Counties and the County Extension Service in each county.

She will be discussing where one should go if he has a consumer complaint and she will be giving hints on selection of appliances. New Sewing Techniques for Today's Fabrics will be the theme of the presentation by Mr. James Burgamy, regional representative with the Vernina Sewing Machine Company.

In addition to the presentations there will be exhibits and door prizes. These programs are open to the public and there is no charge.

For more information, contact the county extension office in Cameron.

Nutrition Specialist Gives Tips On Home Canning

Home canning jars can last 10 years or more if used and stored properly, Marilyn Haggard, a foods and nutrition specialist, says.

"It's a good practice always to use standard home canning jars which have the name of the manufacturer on the side of the jar. These are mechanically shock-resistant to withstand minor bumps against other jars and the pressure required to process low acid fruits, vegetables, and meats," she explained.

Miss Haggard is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System.

She cautioned against using packers, jars, such as empty mayonnaise and pickle jars. These should not be put in the pressure canner because they are designed for one-time packing and for foods which are not pressure processed.

"In packing jars, be careful not to let objects such as knives and spatulas strike the bottom or scratch the sides of the jar. This weakens the jars and may cause breakage when the jars are under pressure.

"Remove jars from the water bath or pressure canner using jar lifters. This prevents burns and reduces the danger of breakage. Cool jars away from drafts to prvent breakage from cool air drafts," she said.

"Remove the lid by sticking an ice pick in the center of the jar lid and lifting up. This releases the pressure for easy removal and also prevents nicking the lip of the jar.

"Nicks on the lip of the jar can prevent the lid from sealing. Once used, the jars should be stored undisturbed for next year's canning," she said.

TO WED--Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Zajicek of Holland announce the engagement of their daughter, Terry Ann, to Gary Fuchs of Buckholts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fuchs of Hillsboro. Terry is a graduate of Buckholts High School and is a freshman at Temple Junior College. Gary is a graduate of Calvert High School and is employed with Milam Electric in Cameron.

Methodists Set 1976Conference

DALLAS

Two faculty members from Perkins School of Theology located here, a Houston youth choir, and a Spanish speaking task force from Texas and New Mexico are each expected to have featured roles in the quadrennial meeting of the United Methodist General Conference in Portland, Oregon.

Scheduled for April 27 through May 8, the top lawmaking body of the denomination will act on issues ranging from needs of ethnic minority local churches to a multi - million dollar request to fight world hunger to a resolution calling on United Methodists to observe two bicentennials -- one of their country in 1976 and the other of their church in 1984.

J. B. Holt, dean of admissions at Perkins School of Theology in Dallas, is the secretary of the General Conference which represents 10 million members around the world.

Elected at the last general conference in Atlanta in 1972, Dr. Holt has already accredited the 984 delegates representing some 70 U. S. annual conferences and another 35 annual conferences outside the U. S.

Dr. Holt is responsible for the verbatum recording of the 12 day international conference, certifying the record for printing in the Daily Christian Advocate and assisting the presiding officer in clarifying motions from the floor of the conference.

TWO BICENTENNIALS

Soon after the opening of the evening session of the conference on Tuesday, (April 27) Albert C. Outler, research professor of theology at Perkins School of Theology in Dallas, is expected to present a resolution from the denomination's Bicentennial Committee declaring the 1976 U. S. Bicentennial observances "will be no more than ceremonial unless they prompt us to fresh and positive commitments."

The proposed resolution suggests three types of commitments, one of which is a "Thanksgiving season" in 1976 designated as a time of National Rededication." The draft resolution also looks toward the vicentennial of U. S. Methodism in 1984, which comes 200 years following the Christmas conference of 1784 when the Methodist Episcopal Church was born in Baltimore, Md.

YOUTH CHOIR

Seventy-five members of the 100 member youth choir of Bellaire United Methodist Church in Houston will sing at the Portland conference on Saturday, May 1, during the morning worship. Selected in a nationwide audition, the youth choir is only one of two groups east of the Rockies invited to sing at the morning worship services.

The choir has used a series of car washes, garage sales, a musical play and concerts to earn air fare to Portland for themselves and their leaders, Mr. and MRS. Earle B. Lowder.

SPANISH TASK FORCE

The two member Spanish speaking delegation from speaking delegation from the Texas and New Mexico based Rio Grande Annual Conference has an eleven member Spanish - speaking task force coming from the two - state region for support in Portland.

"This task force will be a catalyst to assist our delegation in unusual circumstances," said Simon Nieto, Albuquerque, New Mexico, a task force member. "We do not vote but we will be supportive, serving as diplomats and spokespersons for the Rio Grande Conference in the committees, the different caucuses, and meetings that go on everywhere."

One team member described the Spanish - speaking annual conference as a minority conference seeking improvement "and one of the ways to achieve it, is to have a larger numerical representation at General Conference."

DELEGATES

Sixty-eight of the 984 delegates to the 1976 General conference will come from the seven annual conferences of Texas and New Mexico. One half of the delegates are clergy and the other half are lay.

The four resident bishops of Texas and New Mexico will attend the conference. They may preside over the conference but do not have a vote, as do the delegates. Bishop O. Eugene Slater heads the San Antonio Area, Bishop W. McFerrin Stowe, the Dallas - Fort Worth Area, Bishop Alsie H. Carleton, the Northwest Texas-New Mexico Area, and Bishop Paul V. Galloway, the Houston Area.

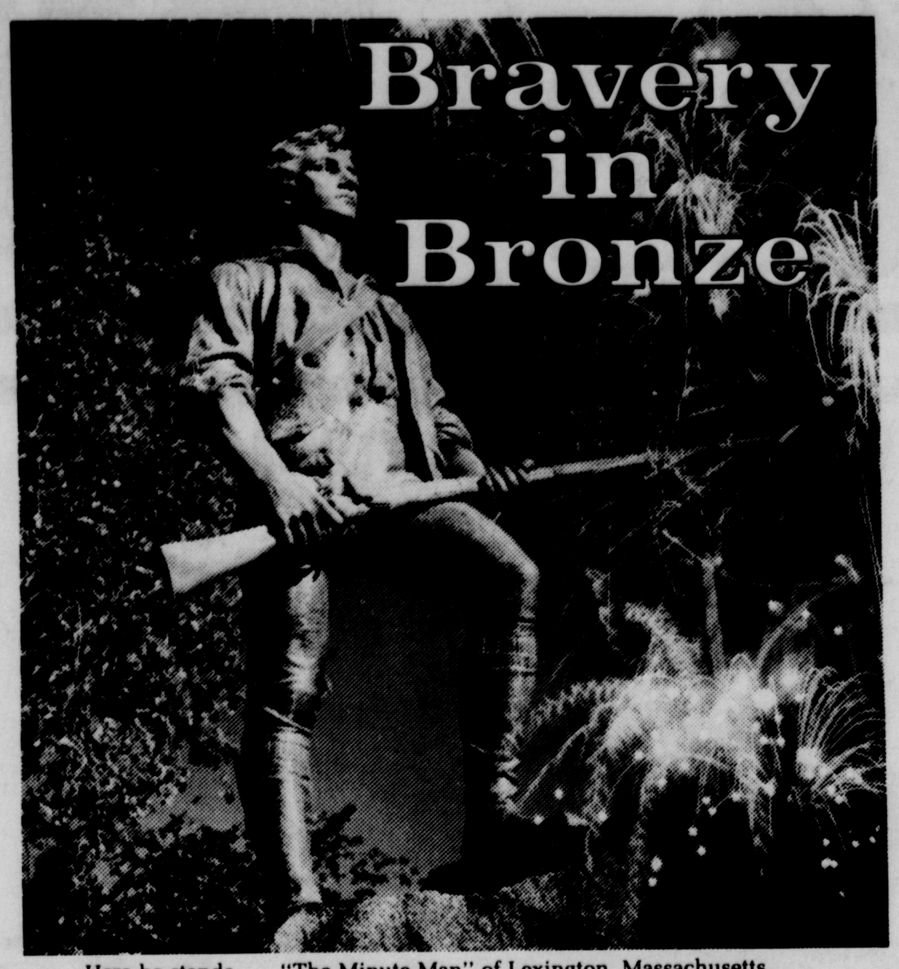
Bravery in Bronze



Here he stands . . . "The Minute Man" of Lexington, Massachusetts.

A photographer with imagination chose the background of fireworks.

But that April night when Paul Revere alerted the Minute Men, there were fireworks of a different kind. The bravery that night was not in bronze!

It is no accident that this historical encounter occurred in the same colony which the pilgrim fathers founded in their quest for religious liberty. The very kernel of American freedom sprung from the right to believe in God and to worship Him — each in his own way. The heritage of the Minute Men was a courage born in conscience that defied any invasion of liberty — religious or political!

Two centuries ago patriots established with their blood a nation of conscience, of faith. Celebrate that with your heart and soul . . . it cannot be preserved in bronze.

Expert Gives Advice For Storm Damaged Garden

Violent spring thunderstorms are beginning to roam over Texas, and that means home vegetable gardeners can expect some damage to their crops.

"Home vegetable gardens are highly susceptible to high winds, heavy rains, and hail that often accompany spring thunderstorms," points out Sam Cotner, horticulturist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"If such weather causes heavy damage to vegetable crops, the gardener must decide whether to leave the damaged plants or to start over and replant."

Plants that often suffer the most from violent weather are squash, cucumbers and beans, notes the Texas A&M University System specialist.

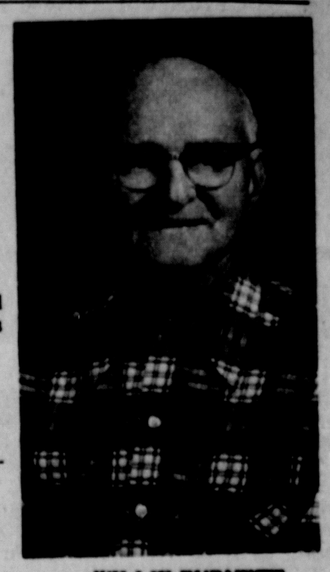
Where garden space is available, Cotner suggests leaving the less damaged plants and replanting the remainder of the crop.

"Most vegetable seed will germinate rapidly once the soil has warmed, so replanting is often the best alternative. Of course, if transplants can be obtained, you can gain several weeks of valuable growing time."

In many areas of the state, it is too late to replant cool season vegetables such as lettuce, carrots, cabbage, and cauliflower. Cotner suggests replanting such crops to warm season vegetables if weather damage occurs.

"Whether damaged plants are left to recuperate or the crops are replanted, the overall delay in production will mean closer attention to care and maintenance of the crops in the months ahead," points out the horticulturist. "Insects will become more active as the growing season progresses, so plants must be checked more closely and control measures taken as the situation warrants. Also, watering will become more critical as hot weather approaches."

Adversity such as that resulting from weather damage tests the "true grit" of home gardeners, believes Cotner. Hopefully, though, it will bring all gardeners close to nature and to living things and will instill in them the will to try again.



WILLIE BURNETT

Open House To Honor 'Mr. Willie'

An open house is set Sunday, May 2, from 2 until 4:30 p.m. to honor "Mr. Willie" Burnett, who will be celebrating his 90th birthday, at his home in Jones Prairie.

The open house will be hosted by his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. All relatives, friends and acquaintences are invited to attend.

Mr. Burnett was born May 1, 1886 to Isaac and Mary Burnett in Edgefield County, South Carolina. When he was five the family came to Central Texas, settling in the Marlow Community where the children got their education at the Cove Switch School.

Mr. Willie married Miss Audrey Burnett of Jones Prairie on Dec. 25, 1913 and they had seven sons: Giles of Cameron, Bradley, Carlton and Moye of Beaumont, Jack of Katy, Leland of Ben Arnold and Charles of Bryan. Mrs. Audrey died August 4, 1968.

Mr. Willie still lives in the Jones Prairie Community where he moved his family some 40 years ago.

Highway Program Caught In Jaws Of Increased Costs

DEL RIO

The Texas highway program is caught in the grinding jaws of increased costs and a leveling off of revenues, Charles E. Simons, State Department of Highways and Public Transportation commissioner, told West Texas Chamber of Commerce members today.

Commissioner Simons also said, "Add to these factors a prospective decrease in revenues as more fuel efficient vehicles come into use and the outlook becomes gloomy."

Speaking at the annual business session of the West Texas Chamber, the commissioner assured his listeners that his department was not "crying wolf" and was not throwing in the towel.

He pointed out that the five percent per gallon Texas gasoline tax, the lowest in the nation, does not all go to the transportation agency. One-forth of it goes to the Available School Fund and the equivalency of another penny pays for the entire cost of the State Highway Patrol.

To meet the situation, Commissioner Simons said the department has cut the number of employees about 5,400 from Sept. 1, 1972 to the present time. He added that other actions had been taken, such as not picking up litter as often as before, declaring a moratorium on the purchase of some rights of way and cutting out the annual safety and bettermen program this year.

Commissioner Simons said, "It is not our function to recommend methods of funding--this must be done by the people

Santa Fe Industries, Inc. net income for the first quarter of 1976 was $16.1 million, or 62 cents a chare, nearly double the $8.2 million, or 31 cents a share, earned last year, John S. Reed, chairman, announced today.

Total revenues and sales for the first three months were $376 million, compared with $327 million for the same period in 1975, an increase of 15 percent.

VOTE FOR MODERN LAW ENFORCEMENT!

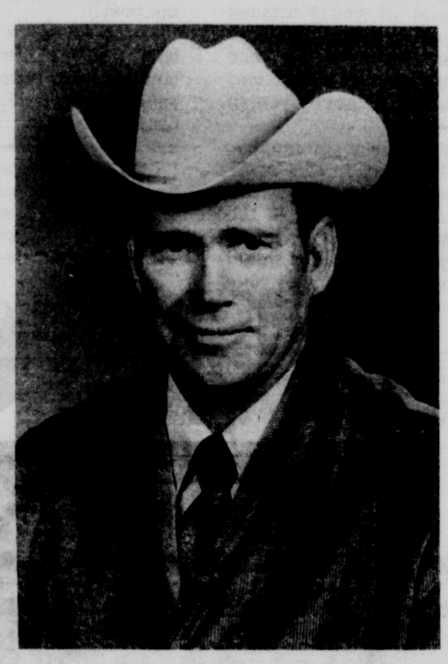
GO TO THE POLLS SATURDAY, MAY 1, 1976

ELECT

LEROY BROADUS

SHERIFF

OF MILAM COUNTY



Laws were originally made for the benefit of citizens who want to live and raise their families in communities that were free of crime.

There has been a nation-wide tendency in recent years to go overboard and protect the rights of the criminal--to see that he gets every break that the law allows. I would not deny any person the rights given under the law. However, I BELIEVE THE VICTIMS OF CRIME HAVE RIGHTS, ALSO, and I believe these rights should be protected with all resources available.

I have a family and I know the problems of our young people today. If there is any way I can help a young person become a productive citizen, I will do so.

If elected your Sheriff, I pledge to the people of Milam County to provide good, honest, progressive, and modern law enforcement that is needed in this day and time. I pledge the Sheriff's office will respond immediately to calls 24 hours a day. I'll do everything in my power to protect the lives and property of citizens of Milam County--in the towns and in the rural areas.

When I first started my campaign, I wanted to contact every citizen of the county, but of course, this is an impossibility. I am grateful for the friendly reception given me by the many I have been able to contact, and to those I have missed I want to take this means of pledging my interest in all of you as citizens of the county, and in your right to expect the best possible law enforcement. I would invite any citizen to contact me with any questions you might have about me and my qualifications for the office of Sheriff.

Like many of you, I have been concerned about the future of law enforcement in Milam County. I resigned from the Texas Department of Public Safety with which I had served for 16 years (12 in Milam County) because I wanted to serve the citizens of the county as your Sheriff. I wanted the people to have a say in the future of their law enforcement. The candidate who wins will hold office through 1980.

The only defense you have against crime is adequate law enforcement. This is my pledge to you if I am elected your Sheriff.

Your vote and support will be sincerely appreciated.

Mondrik Tabs Win

Yoemen Edge Cougars, 3-1

Coming from behind in an important District 23AA baseball contest the Cameron Yoemen edged by Rosebud-Lott 3-1 to remain within striking distance of the north zone lead.

The series is in a 3 way tie among Cameron, Elgin, and Hearne, all with a 3-2 record. Rosebud-Lott is the only other north zone member is in the cellar with a 1-4 ledger.

Joey Mondrik went the distance for the Yoemen and hurled an all seven innings, giving up 1 run and 4 hits. Mondrik struck out 9 and walked 6 in the evening game that was played at Yoe Park.

The Rosebud-Lott Cougars led the contest after scoring their only run in the top of the third inning. The third inning also held all the other batting action as the Cougars picked up four hits in the inning.

Steve Brugman, Jimmy Thorton, and C. E. Wolk all singled to load the bases with 2 men out. Kirk Ryan stepped to the plate and singled in Brugman to give the Cougars the one run edge.

Mondrik closed the Cougars half by fanning out the next Cougar batter with three strikes in a row to end the big scoring threat.

Yoe's turn came in the bottom half of the fourth when Joe Smitherman tagged a single from his lead off position. Mondrik reached first on an error. Donald Komar got a base on balls to load the bases and give the Yoemen their first scoring opportunity of the evening.

Short stop Joe Reyes carried the big bat for the Yoemen and singled to right center to bring in Smitherman.

Dennis Hollas started the action again for the Yoemen in the 5th inning and reached first base on a past ball on the third strike.

Gerry Heitman followed by doubling to right center and brought in Hollas. Heitman was able to tag the home plate when Smitherman tagged a double down the right field line.

Fish License Show Decline

AUSTIN

Sales of fishing licenses from September 1975 through March 1976 are lagging far behind figures for the same period a year ago.

License sales officials at the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department report 463-006 sold so far this year, down 103,068 from the 566,-074 sold during the seven-month period last year.

Perhaps that partially accounts for the 1,097 citations filed by P&WD game wardens in March for fishing violations, 988 of which were for failure to have a fishing license.

Elgin, Caldwell Split District 23-AA Track Title

In the district 23AA track meet hosted by Rosebud-Lott netted a tie between Caldwell and Elgin with 109 points, followed by Cameron with 83.

The Yoemen were favored heavily to win the district meet but difficulties continued to plague the team. In the final outcome the Yoemen will compete in four events on the regional level in Brenham on Saturday, May 1.

In the field events Joe Smitherman will toss the discuss after his 2nd place throw in the district competition of 49'2". Washington of Caldwell edged Smitherman out for the first place medal.

In the running events Michael White, Robert Miller, and the Mile Relay team will compete.

White won the 440 yard dash at the district meet with a 52.7 and will again be favored in the regional test. Miller will compete in the 220 yard dash after his first place finish at the district meet leading the district with a 21.8 time.

A second place finish by the mile relay team qualified the team to run in the regional meet. Cameron finished behind first place Caldwell with a 3:33, while Caldwell broke the tape with a 3:32.3 time.

Elgin finished with five first place finishes and Caldwell was able to have a rounded attack in all events to bring the district contest to the duo stalemate.

SPORT SPOTLIGHT

By FORREST GUESS

TRACK TIME. . .

A disappointing lag came over the Yoemen in the District 23AA meet last week in Travis. The Yoemen were pre-meet favorites. Elgin and Caldwell took the district title with a 109 point tie.

The Yoemen edged out Hearne who had 80 points and the Yoemen had 83.

However bleak the picture might seem for the tracksters, the Yoemen will send four events to regional.

Joe Smitherman, Michaiel White, Robert Miller, and the mile relay team which is made up of Stanley Manners, R. Miller, John McIntyre, and M. White will see regional competition.

The Yoe tracksters will be running Saturday in Brenham at the Blinn Jr. College track.

After the Regional meet all winners will then compete in the State meet in May.

In girls track the Yoe fems placed in the pre-lims and then competed in the finals of the mile relays. The girls finished 7th in the finals.

Members of the girls team that competed in the regional meet last Saturday in Brenham were Kim Fritz, Tullullah Green, Diana Chubb, Brenda Gooden, and Denice Drgac as alternate.

This was the first time ever that a girls team represented Yoe High in track competition on the regional level. A splendid showing of Yoe talent. . .

REGIONAL BOUND. . .

The record tells all. Regional bound athletes include members from tennis, boys track, golf, and girls track. One can't forget that the basketball and football teams that also participated in regional games.

Can you argue with success? I can't. I especially appreciate the fine cooperation from the coaches of the regional bound sportsters. Coach Ed Cauley, Linda Puckett, Max Graham, Nelson Huffman, Ken Poole, and Helen Huffman. A fine line-up of varsity coaches. . .

Also the fine help of the junior high coaches throughout their successful season include Roy Knight, Janice Swope, James Petty, and Roger Williams.

It's tough to gather all the news and even tougher to be at all the sports events, but with the cooperation of the above coaches it has been exciting to publish the winning news.

Publication is to inform, pro or con--good or bad--win or lose. . .

DALLAS COWBOYS. . .

Miracle team of '75--the Dallas Cowboys. The Cowboys have announced their '76 schedule which includes the first visit by the Buffalo Bills and O. J. Simpson.

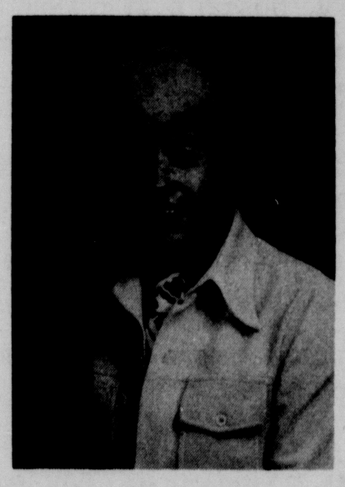
MAURICE LOWREY

CONSTABLE PCT. 1



Today's criminal, for the most part, is a skilled and experienced professional. He usually drives a better and faster car than most law enforcement agencies and is quite often radio equipped.

If he is a professional burglar, his income will be about $75,000 a year. A beginner will usually run between $12,000 and $15,000. It is a small wonder that they are willing to risk two or three years of their lives in prison for such income.

If he is a dope addict, his habit may cost as much as $200 a day and because his stolen property will only bring about 1/3 of its value, he must steal $600 each day. To satisfy a deadly habit and the desire for quick, easy money are two of the major factors of increasing crime rates every year.

One of the best ways to combat our rising crime rate today is education. Every law enforcement officer should strive to educate his community in crime prevention. That is--ways to improve the security of their home and/or business, how to properly mark their property for quick and easy identification and many other things most officers know about crime prevention. The officers need to educate themselves, not only in crime prevention, but in every phase of law enforcement.

I have been on the street as a peace officer for 6 1/2 years, and have dealt with many situations, ranging from a runaway child to murder, from shop lifting to armed robbery. I am certified by the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Standards and Education. My schooling consists of Police Operations, Criminal Investigation, Criminology, Criminal Procedure and Evidence, Police Administration, Records and Identification, Court Procedure, and Traffic Law. I am presently enrolled in college and am majoring in Law Enforcement because I believe the officer is letting his community down if he ever quits trying to learn the ever-changing and improving methods of today's criminal.

To those of you that I have not been able to personally contact, I offer my most sincere apoligies. As Constable of Precinct 1, I feel that I can be of service to my community. I want to serve you. Your vote and influence will be appreciated.

Thank You,
Maurice Lowrey

The first American spelling book was printed by Stephen Day in Cambridge, Massachusetts in the year 1643!

Following are the delegates in the May 1 primary who are pledged to Ronald Reagan:

DISTRICT 11
- Mrs. Bette MacRae
- Mrs. Jimmie Angel
- Herbert H. Hahn
- Weldon Walker

There is a difference.

In the May 1 presidential primary, Texas voters will make a decision that can profoundly affect the future of our nation.

That decision, in its simplest terms, is this: Should America continue traveling the path it has followed for the past 10 years, toward bigger government at home and the weakness of "detente" abroad? Or should we seek a new and different course: Calling a halt to the upward spiral of big government, enormous deficits and heavy taxes, and seeking a firm defense of our legitimate interests?

On these and other issues, there is a clear and striking difference between the presidential candidates. Gerald Ford stands for continued drift with the liberal policies of big government and "detente". Ronald Reagan stands for new initiatives in freedom—based on limited government, personal liberty, and peace through strength.

In this primary campaign, Mr. Ford has tried to gloss over these differences with conservative-sounding rhetoric. He would have us believe, in some of his statements, that there is no "philosophical difference" between himself and Governor Reagan. A look at the record discloses otherwise:

FORD:

Despite his conservative-sounding rhetoric, it is Gerald Ford who

- retains a top official, Helmut Sonnenfeldt, who says the people of Poland, East Germany and other captive nations should not resist the tyranny of Moscow but should accept enslavement.
- has spoken approvingly of a massive busing plan in Detroit and refuses to back a constitutional amendment that would prohibit busing.
- appointed Nelson Rockefeller as Vice President of the United States.
- retained Henry Kissinger as Secretary of State, and fired a Secretary of Defense who disagreed with Kissinger's "detente".
- weakened the embargo on Castro's Cuba and put an adviser to George McGovern in charge of U.S. Latin policy.
- signed into law an energy bill that imposes more controls on oil production, rather than fewer as he had promised.
- approved $100 billion in deficits in two short years and said the growth of social welfare programs was "on the whole, commendable."
- appointed a Secretary of Labor who is a sworn opponent of right-to-work laws.
- appointed a U.S. Attorney General, Edward H. Levi, who favors restrictive gun laws.
- approved the surrender of the Panama Canal Zone to the leftward-leaning government of Panama.

REAGAN:

Backed by an eight-year record as governor of our largest state, it is Ronald Reagan who

- says we must stand firm against the Soviets and support our anti-Communist allies around the globe.
- supports a Constitutional amendment to halt forced busing.
- cut the welfare rolls in California by 300,000 people.
- converted a $700 million deficit into a half-a-billion dollar surplus.
- restored law and order to the turbulent campuses of California.
- proposed a lid on state and local levies to protect the taxpayer from the spenders.
- says we should not cave in to Communist tyrant Fidel Castro and his revolutionary export business.
- says we should deregulate oil and gas production, rather than regulate it further.
- believes the Constitutionally-guaranteed right to keep and bear arms must be protected.
- is on record supporting right-to-work, and the states' ability to pass such laws.
- says we should not give up the Panama Canal Zone but should defend American sovereignty there.

Mr. Ford is talking conservative on the campaign trail, so that he can go back to Washington and continue to compromise with liberal politics-as-usual.

Ronald Reagan seeks a new day in American government—in which the taxpayers have at least an even break with subsidy-seekers, and American defenses are once again secure.

Which will it be? More of the same, or a new commitment to individual freedom, limited government, and peace through strength?

The choice, Texas voter, is up to you.
